Specially Elected MCA, (Hon. Lenamatiyio Silapia): Thank you Madam Speaker, I have a concern on the laid papers by the Minority Leader. I think it is a matter of concern for them to table the papers one by one, how do we approve that all those papers read to us are here, thank you.

The Majority Leader, (Hon. Leleruk James): Madam Speaker, I think there is no problem, we can just table one-by-one, thank you.

Hon. Speaker I can table one by one but I will not follow the sequence.

Temporary Speaker, (Hon. Stacy Nareyio): It is okay, the Hon. Member said she wants the reports to be tabled one by one, she wants evidence that all the reports are here, it is in order.

Hon. Asha do you have something to say?

Specially Elected MCA, (Hon. Mohamed Asha): I think he should read and put the report here then he can take all of them, because of going there and coming back.

Member can confirm if all of them are available because I also support what she has said Madam Speaker, thank you.

Specially Elected MCA, (Hon. Lenamatiyo Silapia): Thank you Madam Speaker, that is in order.

Temporary Speaker, (Hon. Nareyo Stacy): Hon. Lawrence, do you have something to say?

MCA Nachola Ward, (Hon. Lorunyei Lawrence): Madam Speaker, I think now everything is in order because giving things in blankets in this Hon. House, Mr. Speaker, we cannot know the truth and what is in front of us is tabling of the papers and it must be a paper after another paper and we verify whether it is real or not. The Hon. Member was very right, because if it is tabling the papers, we need to verify or to be sure that the Papers on the Order Paper are the ones being tabled. As you saw in the last Paper which was tabled, the Hon. Member said 2025 while the Order Paper it is 2024 in the Order Paper. For us to verify, the Papers need to be tabled one by one. But because now it is in order, we are satisfied Madam Speaker, thank you.

Specially Elected MCA, (Hon. Mohammed Asha): Thank you Madam Speaker, I also support what Hon. Silapia said; my only issue was Hon. Leleruk reading this thing, going there and coming back, that is the only issue that I had, otherwise I support.

Temporary Speaker, (Hon. Nareyo Stacy): Okay. I think all the Members are now satisfied that all the reports, 20 of them, have been tabled and you have verified that all of them have been tabled.

The Minority Leader, (Hon. Leleruk James): Thank you Madam Speaker. Just for information, the Hon. Member for Nachola asked if there was a report for 2024 and 2025 and I confirm both of them are here.

Temporary Speaker, (Hon. Nareyo Stacy): The Municipality Report? Yes, there are two of them. There is the 2025 one and the 2024 one and I think he has verified, that he has tabled. Hon. Members, I hereby commit the reports of the Auditor-General to the Committee of PIC and PAC.

Hon. Members, I think there is a communication that Members will be travelling to Nairobi for the CAF meeting.
